Dear Head of Human Resources
PT Paxel Indonesia

I here by submit my application for the position of IT Support Internship at PT Paxel Indonesia. My name is Yoga Agung, and I am highly interested in gaining professional experience within a technology-driven logistics company.

I possess a strong interest in information technology, particularly in system support, hardware and software maintenance, and technical troubleshooting. I am experienced in operating office computer systems, performing software installation, configuration, and routine maintenance. Furthermore, I have competencies in data processing and analysis and a fundamental understanding of office computer network management (LAN/WAN).

In addition, I have basic knowledge of network configuration, including IP addressing, routers, and switches, which enables me to support day-to-day technical operations effectively. I am also proficient in using Microsoft Office applications (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint) to assist with administrative and reporting activities.

I am an adaptable and responsible individual with a strong willingness to learn and develop professionally. I am confident that this internship opportunity will allow me to contribute positively while enhancing my technical and professional competencies in the field of IT Support.

Enclosed herewith are my curriculum vitae and supporting documents for your review. I would appreciate the opportunity to further discuss my application in the next stage of the recruitment process. Thank you for your time and kind consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Yoga Agung Pratama Putra
